Larry Gelwix, "The Winningest Coach in America". Larry Gelwix served as the volunteer Head Coach of the Highland Rugby team for 36 years. The team's success and varsity record of 418 wins and just 10 losses, including 20 national championships, caught the attention of Hollywood which produced a major motion picture, "Forever Strong", which tells the true life story of Coach Gelwix and the Highland team. Gelwix was also the subject of a documentary entitled, "Larry Gelwix: No Regrets", which won an Emmy Award for "Best Documentary" and has aired on national television. Fox News and other national media have labeled Coach Gelwix as the "Winningest Coach in America".
